

Collection

The Escape

Whether you're seeking a grand period home for celebratory gatherings or a heavenly hideout for a dose of romantic escapism, our curated collection of unique retreats promises a luxury getaway straight from your wildest staycation dreams.

Ula

Portleven, Cornwall

Meaning 'gem of the sea', luxury meets peaceful escapism on the sheltered clifftops of Porthleven in Cornwall. From the unadulterated sea views to the Scandi-inspired interiors, Ula is the ultimate romantic retreat. boutique-retreats.co.uk

Above & Left: Imagery Courtesy of Boutique Retreats & Matthew Heritage

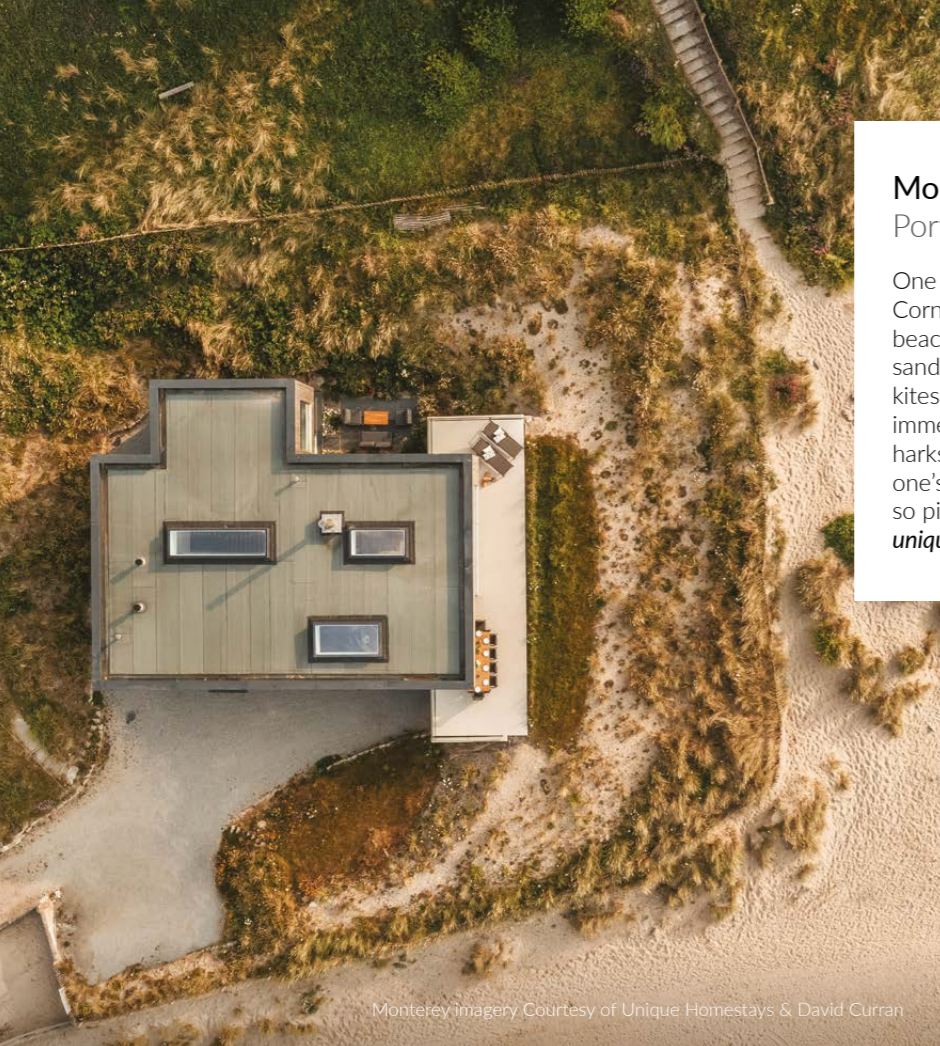

Honestone

Southwold, Suffolk

Loafing in the purlieu of Suffolk is a south-facing home so ornate that even royal hearts would beat a little faster under its hipped-slate bonnet. Fantasy pokes a portal into the real world at Honestone, a 17th-century estate – with a pool, modern gym, lavish spa, and high-spec home cinema – that totes the tune of Greek mythology into Southwold. The secret's out: this luxury historic manor by The Broads is where off-duty A-listers go to let loose. uniquehomestays.com

Monterey imagery Courtesy of Unique Homestays & David Curran

Monterey Porthtowan, Cornwall

One of a new generation of luxury beach houses in Cornwall, all silver timbered and skylit, where beachgoers take ten steps from the sofa to the sand, and chatter whirls through the halls like the kites above Porthtowan. Monterey is subtle, immersed, convivial. There's something about it that harks to a dream from the salad days: a beach of one's own, porpoises for neighbours, and sunsets so pink they turn the whole place to candyfloss. uniquehomestays.com

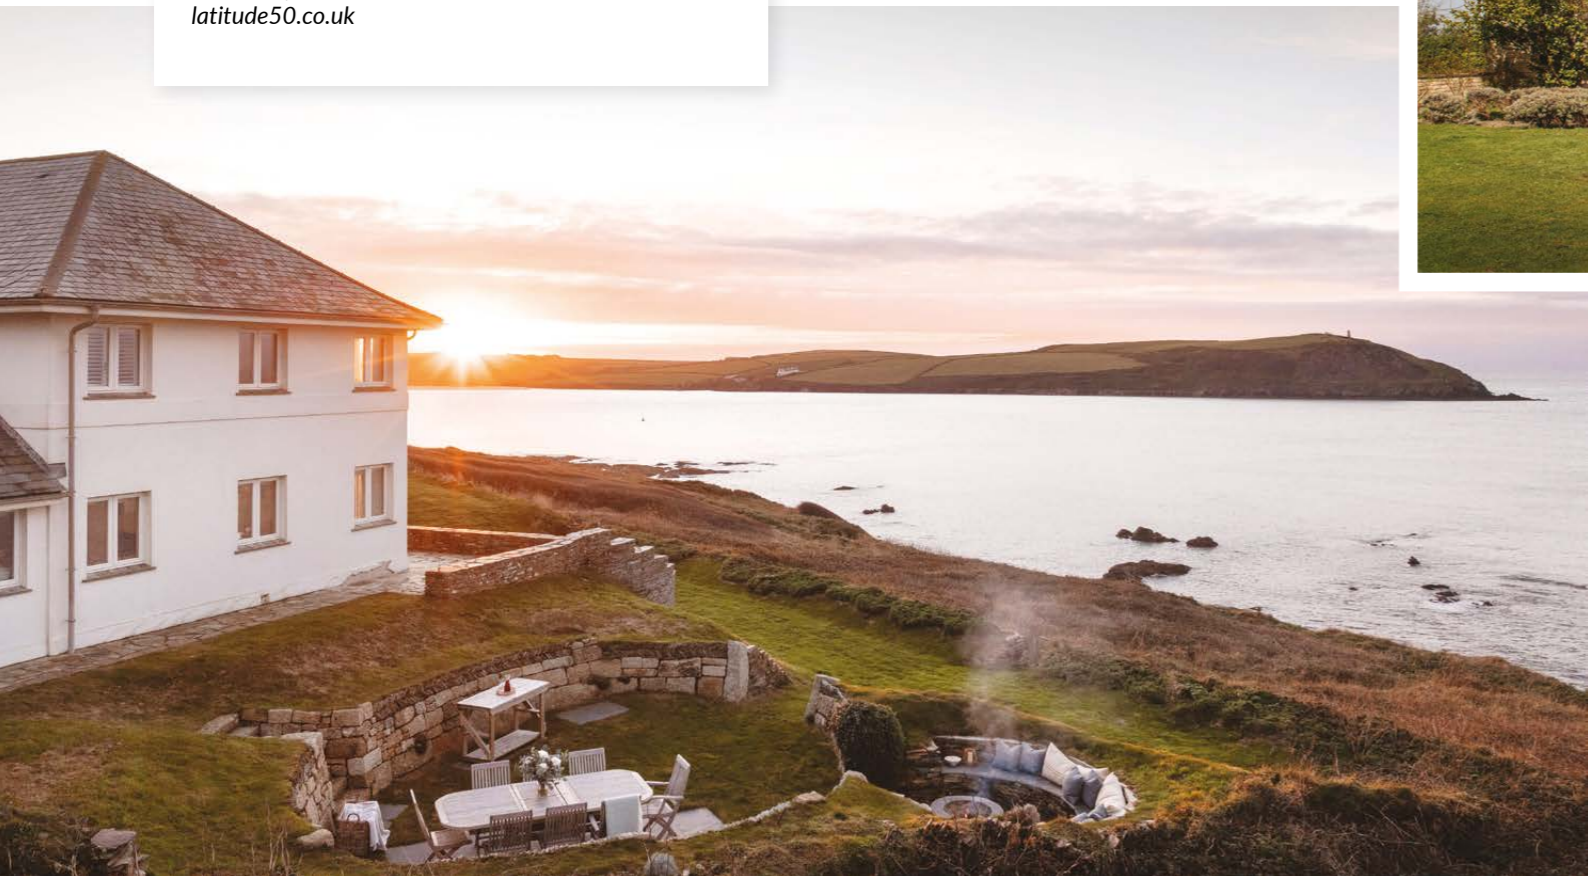

Quayside Cottage Salcombe, South Devon

There are few properties in Salcombe that can boast more spectacular views than Quayside Cottage, which, as its name suggests, sits right on the water's edge in this popular sailing town. Add beautiful interiors, four en suite bedrooms, a sunny patio and pubs, bistros and shops on the doorstep, and Quayside Cottage has everything on your wish list. toadhallcottages.co.uk

Seagull Daymer Bay, Cornwall

Settled within the quiet idyll of rural bliss between the popular villages of Daymer Bay and Polzeath, Seagull combines luxurious interiors with dreamy outside spaces. latitude50.co.uk

The Marlings Stroud, The Cotswolds

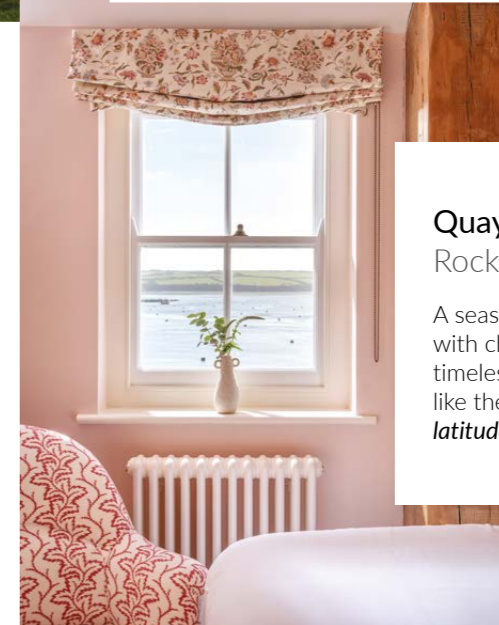

Here is a centennial grain store, reborn; a place where polished nickel boat baths offset an oat-and-husk palette. A stone's throw from the limestone grassland and fruit markets of the Cotswolds, this celebratory cluster of barns and cottages has more character than you could shake a sheaf of wheat at. It's a feat of inside-out artistry that brings the days of yore into the here and now, yielding a luxury self-catering farmhouse on the outskirts of Stroud with a pool, hot tub, playground, and tennis court to rival any private family resort. uniquehomestays.com

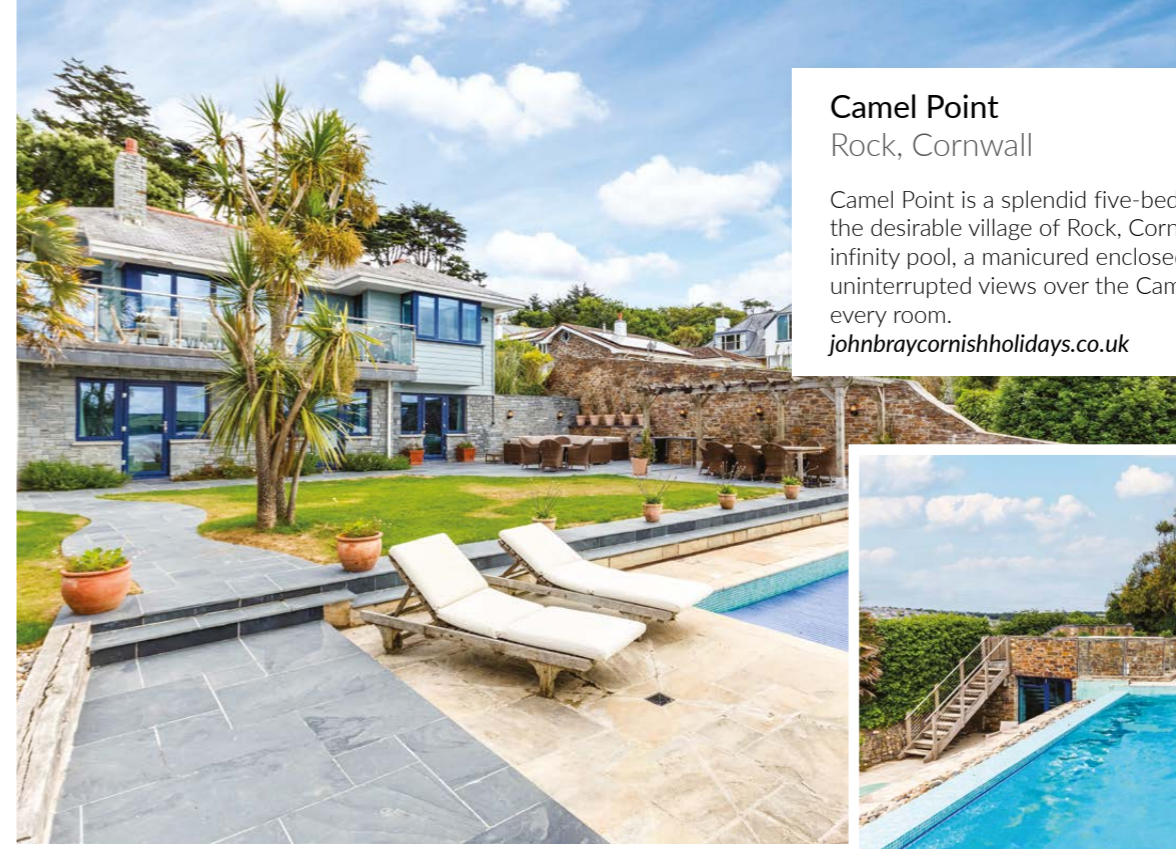

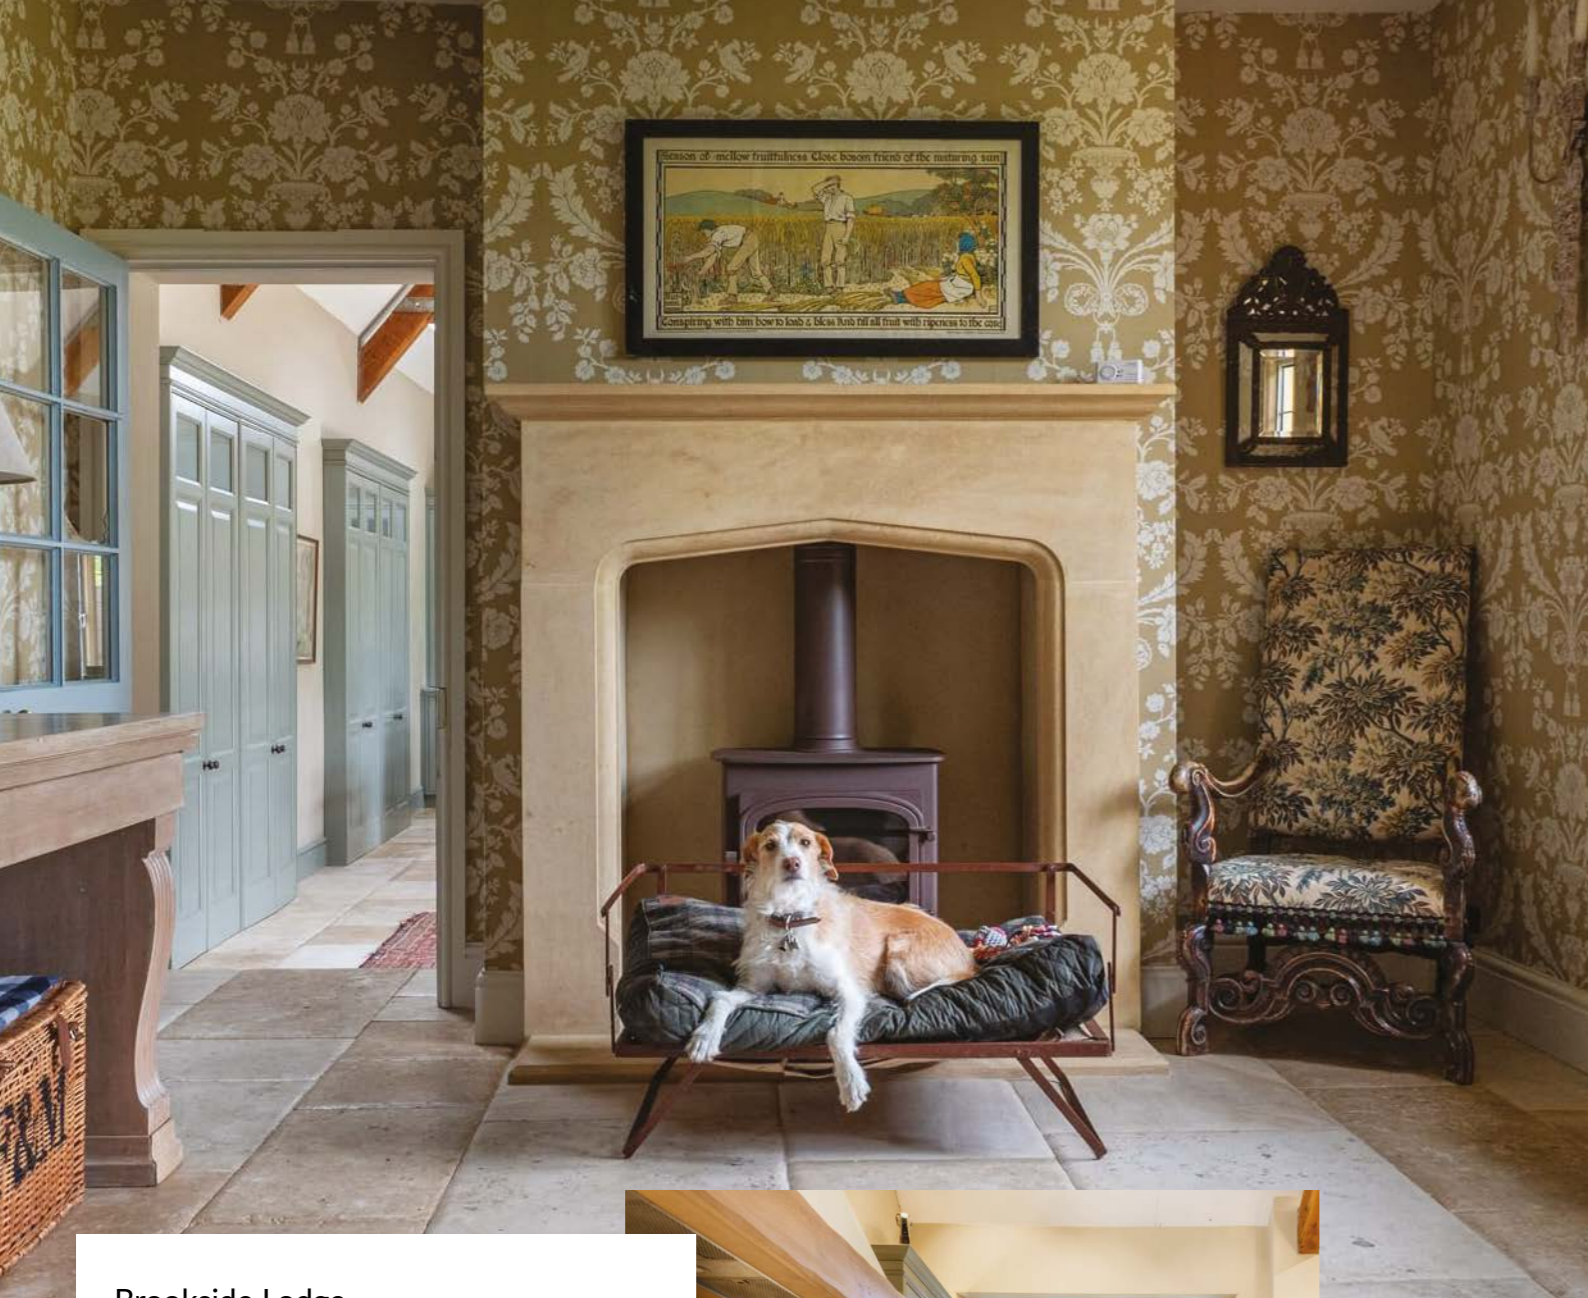

The Marlings imagery Courtesy of Unique Homestays & David Curran

Quay Cottage Rock, Cornwall

A seaside sanctuary brimming with character, comfort, and timeless style – a home that feels like the very essence of Cornwall. latitude50.co.uk

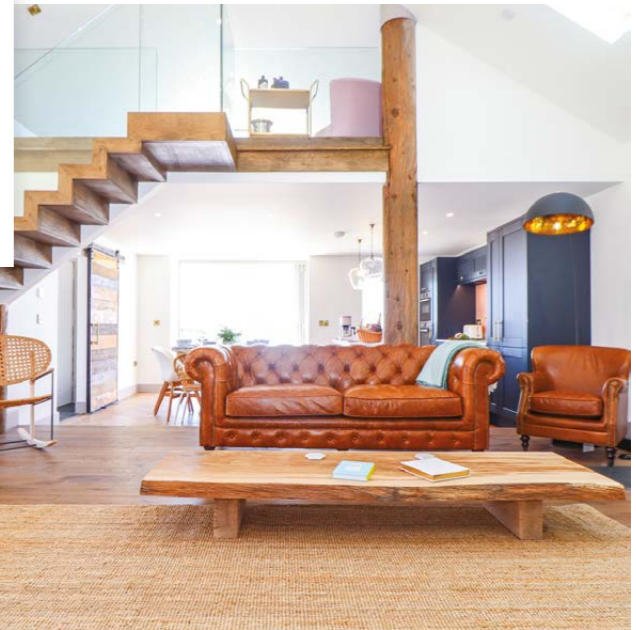

Camel Point
 Rock, Cornwall

Camel Point is a splendid five-bedroom holiday home in the desirable village of Rock, Cornwall, featuring an infinity pool, a manicured enclosed garden, and uninterrupted views over the Camel Estuary from almost every room.
johnbraycornishholidays.co.uk

See Two Seas
 St Just, Cornwall

See Two Seas is an exceptional contemporary barn conversion near St Just, Cornwall, featuring four bedrooms, a hot tub, and breathtaking sea views. With direct access to the South West Coast Path and within easy reach of many breath-taking beaches, this is a beautiful bolthole for a family getaway.
cornishcottageholidays.co.uk

Brookside Lodge
 Laverton, The Cotswolds

Set in the tiny, golden village of Laverton, Brookside Lodge is a luxury Cotswolds self-catering property complete with outdoor heated swimming pool, private gym and 50 acres of glorious grounds. Comprising a grand five-bedroom house and a separate two-bedroom Cotswold-stone cottage, Brookside is perfect for large family gatherings or get-togethers with friends.
toadhallcottages.co.uk

Dover's Rise
 Chipping Campden, The Cotswolds

Nestled on the edge of Chipping Campden in the Cotswolds, seek endless country charm at our soul-soothing escape for ten. With chic interiors and a bubbling hot tub, it's the perfect retreat for family gatherings or get-togethers with friends.
boutique-retreats.co.uk

Imagery Courtesy of Boutique Retreats & Matthew Heritage